

The background features a stylized illustration of a campsite. On the left, there are two green pine trees and a blue pond. In the center, a large brown tent is pitched on a sandy area. To the right of the tent, a campfire with a bright orange flame is burning, surrounded by logs. Another green pine tree stands to the right of the tent. In the bottom right corner, there is another blue pond. The overall color palette is warm, with oranges, browns, and greens.
